CONNECT SMART PEOPLE

Increase team performance and team spirit with a lunch lottery

WE CONNECT SMART PEOPLE BY INVITING COLLEAGUES TO HAVE LUNCH TOGETHER.

Our online lunch lottery facilitates the internal corporate networking. We help you to introduce new colleagues to your team and maintain existing relationships. Rotize supports the exchange of ideas, reduces silo mentality and increases team spirit and performance.

BENEFITS

Working lunches have a lot of benefits. Institutionalize it with rotize.

Increase team spirit and performance

Easily introduce new colleagues and exchange private and business information. Build short-cuts in your business divisions.

Improve internal communication

Connect people that did know each other before, reduce silo-thinking and actively share ideas in a friendly atmosphere.

Use as change communication tool

Increase the success of critical change projects and get constant feedback from your team members.

HOW IT WORKS

rotize is designed for easy use. Automatically build connections with new colleagues and maintain existing ones.

Set up your team
Register your team and set-up administration and individual preferences within seconds.

Get automatic invites rotize randomly matches your members and sends invites 24h before the lunch – integrates well in calendar apps like Lotus Notes or Outlook

Add team members
Invite other members to your team. Everybody will receive a welcome mail and will be part of the matching.

Go to lunch
Build connections with new colleagues and maintain existing ones. Have a nice lunch and enjoy sharing ideas, opinions and interests.

Customize your availability
Users can specify their availability in their personal dashboards. Only available team members take part in the matching process.
View statistics
Team administrators can access aggregated team statistics to check rotize usage.
